WORLD TAI CHI AND QIGONG DAY / WEEK. SATURDAY 27TH APRIL AT 10AM WORLDWIDE - 2013, ADELAIDE

Try Tai Chi - Chi Kung at World event.

World Tai Chi and Qigong Day is now in its 15th year and officially recognized by the United Nations World Health Organization. It is a special day to educate the community and the world to the wonders of Tai Chi - an ancient Chinese martial art now widely practiced for health, well-being and fitness.

Recent research has shown that Tai Chi is beneficial for cardio-respiratory function, peripheral circulation, immune capacity, mental control, flexibility and balance. It also improves muscle strength and reduces tension and anxiety. Qi Gong is Chinese health exercises, also know as Chi Kung & Chinese Yoga, is more achievable & easier than Tai Chi.

On Saturday, 27th April tens of thousands of enthusiasts all over the world will again celebrate this annual event.

They will assemble in public places, parks, town squares, plazas and stadiums for mass exhibitions of Tai Chi and Qigong.

Beginning in New Zealand and Australia at 10.00 am this event will spread time zone by time zone across the globe through 60 countries and across 6 continents ... This healing wave will be a spectacular visual sight, promoting calm and wellness worldwide.

World Tai Chi and Qigong Day will be celebrated in Adelaide at the South Tree Parklands, near Pulteney Street & Himeji Gardens, starting at 10.00am on Saturday 27th April.

Everyone can come & be involved and it is suitable for new beginners & advanced students.

A special week of Free lessons will be conducted by the Tai Chi & Chi Kung Institute from April 23rd - May 27th at Adelaide, Glenelg & Semaphore. Further details ring 8371 2488 or visit The Tai Chi website www.taichi.com.au
